

Program Workshops

Each workshop integrates theory with facilitated interactive group work, with the aim to assist participants to increase their skills and confidence to teach, recognise opportunities for teaching in the clinical setting and to provide better supervision and feedback.

Venue: PMCV Offices, Level 8, 533 Little Lonsdale Street Melbourne CBD 3000

Timing: 8.30am – 2.30pm

Clinical Teaching

Education principles
Questioning techniques
Teacher versus learner focus
Active involvement of learner
Teaching with patients
Micro-teaching
Application in the clinical setting

Skills Teaching

Defining a skill
The learning cycle
4 step approach to skill teaching
Teaching a non-medical skill

Assessment Fundamentals

Definitions and features of assessment/feedback
Planning feedback Giving feedback
Preparing an assessment Dealing with trainees with difficulties

Planning Learning

Defining term outcomes
Developing term objectives
Managing difficulties arising in the clinical setting
Recognising teaching and learning styles
Recognising teaching opportunities

Group Teaching

Planning a presentation
Examine techniques for small and large group sessions
Problem solving during a teaching session
Use of effective visual aids
Effective use of handouts

Support Learners

Understanding the problems
Increasing confidence in dealing with difficult situations
Examining management strategies
Identifying preventative strategies
Application to clinical settings

Back to JMO TOTR Home Page

